

Shiloh Similes

For each simile, underline the two dissimilar words or terms being compared and then write a sentence telling how the words you underlined are alike.

1. The beagle comes barreling toward me, legs going lickety-split, long ears flopping, tail sticking up like a flagpole.

2. Even starts across the bridge, tail going like a propeller.

3. Bats her eyelashes against my skin, feels like a moth's wings.

4. I'm as tense as a cricket that night.

5. Not a dog as shy as him. Shy as a field mouse.

6. I'm as happy as a flea on a dog.

7. Next two days go by smooth as buttermilk.

8. Having Shiloh a secret is like a bomb waiting to go off.

9. Givin' a compliment to Judd Travers is like filling a balloon with air.

10. Sees me waiting on his steps the next day and says I must have a head as thick as a coconut.

11. My mouth is so dry it feels like fur.
